Briefs.
—Temple of Honor night.
—Regular meeting of common council to-morrow evening.
—Hop, John Conley, of Clinton, was in the city to-day.
—Two drunks and one tramp were captured on Saturday night.
—Mr. A. McDougall has a house for sale or rent—24 Cherry street.
—Mr. W. H. Ashcraft is decorating his home on East street, with a coat of handsome paint.
—Remember the social of the ladies of Christ church, at Apollo hall, to-morrow evening.
—Mr. J. W. Carpenter is going into the ice business. Read his notice in this issue.
—Mr. J. W. Hudson, of Madison, deputy grand master of the grand lodge of Odd Fellows, is in the city to-day.
—Hans Richardson, son of Postmaster Richardson, who has been attending Amherst college, returned home to-day.
—Those interested should not forget to attend the regular meeting of the Janesville Anti-Horse Thief society, to be held in the court house this evening, at 7:30 o'clock.
—To the building of residences in Janesville there seems to be no end. A large number of new ones will be erected this season. It is another harvest for carpenters and painters.
—The money order department of the Janesville postoffice paid out $1,140.00 during the past week, and received during the same time $988.27, making a total business for the week, of $2,128.27.
—The republicans did not turn out in very strong force to attend the ward caucus on Saturday evening. It seems that the friends of the various candidates were all willing to take their chances by staying at home.
—Mr. R. J. Whiton, the new proprietor of the O. K. laundry, under the postoffice, is now prepared to do all work entrusted to him, and feels confident that he can satisfy all our citizens who favor him with their patronage.
—Wyller, the East Milwaukee street saloon man, does not propose to let the new license ordinance interfere with him in the least. He is now engaged in refurnishing his saloon, putting on new paper, paint and varnish, and will come out in a few days as brilliant as any of them.
—Owing to the sudden rise in the river on Saturday and Sunday, the cotton factories did not start up their machinery this morning as announced. The managers now say they will not be able to start before next Monday, all on account of high water interfering with the wheels.
—A heavy snow storm set in here at six o'clock yesterday morning, and continued until about two o'clock in the afternoon, the wind blowing strong from the north, and the thermometer indicating 24—30 degrees above zero. The ground being warm the snow melted as fast as it struck the earth. It was a very disagreeable day to be out, and as a consequence the churches were not over-crowded during the morning services.
—Mrs. Henry L. Pitcher arrived in the city on Saturday evening, from Benton Harbor, Michigan, for the purpose of joining her husband, who recently purchased the clothing store of M. C. Smith & Son. Mr. and Mrs. Pitcher will stop at the Myers house for a few days, when they will take possession of the residence of Mr. Geo. W. Hawes, on the corner of Jackson and South First streets, third ward, which will be their future home in this city.
—The meeting of the tobacco association was well attended on Saturday afternoon by those interested in the culture of tobacco in this vicinity. Mr. D. B. Rockwood presided in the absence of the president, Mr. Frank Dano gave an interesting account of how to prepare the ground for tobacco plants, their setting, and care, and was followed by Messrs. Vangilder and Rockwood. Several persons joined the association at this meeting. The next meeting will be held at the same place on Saturday, May 10th at 2 p. m.
—Religious instruction is comparatively easy, during the winter months; at least, this is the experience of a friend who has charge of a Sunday school class in a country town of a neighboring state. He says the class is a good deal demoralized since spring opened, as all the young men in it shudder their shot guns Sunday morning and spend the day trying to frighten the wild ducks that infest the country. If the law prohibiting spring shooting was enforced it might have a good moral effect on the Sunday school.
—This morning Mr. Lew Short, while rowing his boat from above the upper bridge to the place where Mr. Stearns jumped into the river, met with an accident which at first was quite exciting, and narrowly escaped being a fatal one. He approached the bridge, in the strong current near the Sea Side, and after it was too late to change his course he found that he would be compelled to go under the building, and fearing that he would strike the piling and be capsized, he gathered up his oars, and as the boat struck the bridge he jumped, at the same time the boat capsized and lodged against one of the piles. Mr. Short escaped with the wetting of his lower limbs; his boat fared worse, and was considerably damaged, besides requiring considerable time to release it in the strong current.

SUICIDE.
Mr. A. L. Stearns Jumps into Rock River and is Drowned.
Insanity the Probable Cause of the Rash Act.
The attempt to rescue the body from the water.
Last evening about eight o'clock, a few persons who happened to be on Milwaukee street bridge, were considerably alarmed at seeing an elderly man quickly walk upon the bridge from John Graft's hardware store, and after passing the bridge sign, place his hands upon the railing and jumped into the river. One young man, who gave him the name as Herman Wendall, of Watertown, and who is at present driving team for Mr. M. H. Curtis, was at Rooney's market when the man jumped off the bridge. Wendall hurried to the spot, and saw the man come to the surface, and again go down, without uttering a word. He immediately gave the alarm, and says that another man came onto the bridge at the same time, and appeared to be talking with the man who had jumped into the river, but this man could not be found after the crowd collected. Wendall gave a description of the man as wearing a gray suit of clothes. At first the officers thought it was a man named Delany, recently from Fond du Lac, and who had been on a spree for three or four days, and who had been seen during the day in a sort of melancholy frame of mind. Later, however, it was ascertained that Mr. A. L. Stearns, who boarded at Zienow & Blunk's, on West Milwaukee street, was missing, and it was feared that it was he, as Stearns had been troubled for some time with a diseased mind. His son, Mr. C. A. Stearns, who is employed as a fireman on the Northwestern road, made a thorough search for his father in the city, and not finding him concluded that it must be true that he had ended his life by jumping into the river as above stated, and at once procured boats and commenced to search the river to recover the body. The river at the point where all this happened is about ten feet deep at the present time, and the current, while very swift, is full of eddies, caused by the bridge and other obstructions. It is not over twelve or thirteen feet from the top of the railing to the water where the man jumped off. This morning parties were searching in the river near the west shore between the two bridges, and below the lower bridge, but up to this time no trace of the body has been found. Many are of the opinion that the body has not moved out of the eddy near Griffith's hardware store, a place that has not yet been thoroughly searched. There seems to be a lack of organization in conducting the search, many consider that the mayor should give orders for a thorough search, and either direct the operations or employ a competent person to conduct the same, which seems to be the only right way to proceed. As it is, for some time this morning, but one boat was at work, and that one was manned by the son of the supposed drowned man. Less expression of sympathy for such an occasion and a little more work with boats and grappling irons would look and read better to the outside world.
Mr. A. L. Stearns, the man who is supposed to have thus ended his life by jumping into the river, has resided in this city some twenty years; for a number of years residing on Washington street; he had been, in early life a school teacher, but in later years he was engaged in selling school books, until a couple of years ago, since which time he has been boarding at Zienow & Blunk's, on Milwaukee street. His wife died about seven years ago, and all the family he leaves is his son Charles, mentioned above. He was known by many to be troubled with a diseased mind, but being of a harmless disposition, no one feared trouble on his part, and all his acquaintances are surprised at this sad event. He was about sixty-four years of age. The young man Wendall states that he noticed the man standing at that point, and without a word, carried his crazy thought into execution.
Mr. Zienow, of Zienow & Blunk, informs us that Mr. Stearns was at supper last evening, and that he appeared to be in his usual health and mind.

Municipal Court.
Considerable business in the criminal line was disposed of in the municipal court to-day. One disorderly drunk was fined one dollar and costs—all amounting to $1.45. Two disorderly drunks were given two days in jail and fined one dollar and costs, all amounting to $5.02, in default of payment sent to jail for seven days. One vagrant was given fifteen days in the jail; another five days on bread and water, and still another five days on the same diet.
This afternoon the court is occupied in the examination of William Bowers, Edward Marsh, Morris Dee, and James Dalton, charged with breaking into a car belonging to the St. Paul railway company on the night of April 6th, and had not been concluded at three o'clock. Mr. Charles E. Pierce is conducting the examination on the part of the state.

The Mysteries of Life.
On an incoming train was noticed, a few days ago, a family whose experience had been suddenly clouded and saddened by the visit of the unwelcome messenger, Death. In the baggage car a casket contained all that was mortal of the wife and daughter. From the busy child-life up through the developing years to womanhood, the character had been guarded and moulded; and when she went out of the old home five years ago, placing her hand and heart and destiny in the keeping of another, and looked down through the prospective years of happiness, not a cloud intervened to mar the brightness and happiness of the new home. Joy and contentment reigned supreme; and as the anniversaries glided by, the home ties were strengthened and the two lives blended together helping each other in the many ways that make home life a paradise. The present was all sunlight, and the future for half a century, presented a bright and happy picture. Suddenly and without warning, the whole current of life is changed. The wife that made the home has dropped out of it forever, and the husband, blinded by the blow, struggles under the burden with an intense realization of its weight. Coming in contact with such experiences, and they are very common, the mysteries of life are brought prominently before our minds. Life is largely what we make it. Every home, while it remains unbroken, should be a happy home. Death is about the only thing we are absolutely sure of. The present, well improved, may furnish a happy home now and many pleasant memories for the watchers who wait after the home ties are severed.
The boom and demand for Fairbank lots is more lively than ever. A large number of Janesville business men have made purchases.
Petroleum V. Naby.
D. E. Locke, Petroleum V. Naby, editor of Toledo "Blade," writes: "I had a forefinger of my right hand one of those pleasant pots, a 'run-round.' The finger became inflamed to a degree unbearable and swollen to nearly twice its natural size. A friend gave me ELY'S Cream Balm, and in twenty minutes the pain had so much subsided as to give me a fair night's rest, which I had not had before for a week. The inflammation left the finger in a day. I consider it a most valuable article."
David Conger Secured.
Again as we go to press we are informed that the purchasers of Fairbank lots are coming to the front in a business like manner. This time it is our well-known producer dealer and successful speculator, Mr. David Conger. Like the most of Janesville's citizens nothing but the best would suit. He has secured one of the best business locations in the new and promising town of the Wisconsin valley.
Of Great Value to Vocalists.
Unionville, Westchester Co., N. Y., August 20, 1882. I had carefully exposed myself and sustained a very severe and tight cold on my chest and in my throat. I procured Alcock's Porous Plasters and applied one on the chest, wall up on the throat, and relief came readily; the soreness of my chest was removed, and my vocal organs were kept clear the entire past winter, enabling me to fulfill public engagements in different parts of this country.
No more may be said than that Alcock's Porous Plasters, if applied by afflicted vocalists, will greatly assist their vocal rendition in public.

CROOSING A PRESIDENT.
Result of the Ward Primaries on Saturday Evening.
The republicans of Janesville met in caucuses in the various wards on Saturday evening for the purpose of electing delegates to attend the republican senatorial convention to be held at the court house in this city at 12 o'clock to-morrow (Tuesday), and to attend the second assembly district convention to be held in the council chamber at 3 o'clock to-morrow (Tuesday) afternoon. (The caucuses were all very meagerly attended, that in the second ward being the smallest, only five republicans being present. The result of the primary meetings was as follows:
FIRST WARD.
Mr. S. B. Smith was elected chairman, and C. E. Church secretary. Delegates were elected as follows: Senatorial convention—J. W. Saxo, W. B. Britton, H. S. Woodruff, A. A. Jackson and E. W. Vanderlynn. Assembly convention—B. F. Dunwidie, J. W. Bleasdale, S. Morgan, S. P. Hayner and E. B. Moses. The vote for president stood—Blaine 11, Arthur 5—16.
SECOND WARD.
O. H. Fetters, Esq., was chosen chairman, and John C. Spencer secretary. The following delegates were elected: Senatorial convention—O. H. Fetters, Jesse Miles, A. C. Bates and C. L. Valontano. Assembly convention—W. T. Vankirk, I. C. Brownell, John C. Spencer, S. C. Burnham and John Watson. This ward did not vote for president, owing to the meagre attendance.
THIRD WARD.
Mr. Fenner Kimball was chosen chairman, and L. M. Williamson secretary. The delegates elected were: Senatorial convention—C. Miner, R. Valentine, W. H. Leonard and T. F. Murry. Assembly convention—Jas. A. Fetters, L. Field, L. N. Williamson and Fenner Kimball. The vote for president stood—Blaine 9, Arthur 1—10.
FOURTH WARD.
E. J. M. Hyzer, Esq., was chosen chairman, and S. S. Rockwood, secretary. The delegates elected were: Senatorial convention—Charles Atwood, A. H. Sheldon, M. M. Phelps, J. B. LaGrange and S. S. Rockwood. Assembly convention—James A. Webb, Thos. Mahon, A. S. Lee, W. G. Palmer and Charles Pierce. The vote for president stood—Blaine 1, Arthur 4; Logan 1; Edmunds 1—7. In each of the wards the delegates were empowered to cast the full vote in case of absence, and only the delegates in the fourth ward were instructed, and they were for Arthur. It will be seen by the vote for president that the caucuses were not largely attended, and of the forty-nine votes cast, the following candidates received:
Blaine.....24
Arthur.....20
Logan.....1
Edmunds.....1
Conkling.....1
Davis.....1
And the second ward voted on president the above figures would have been slightly changed as it would probably have shown a tie between Blaine and Arthur.

A Boy Shot.
For some time past a squad of boys down on South Franklin street have been raising hell Columbia with the out-buildings belonging to Mr. D. Schofield, and lately they have so annoyed him that he was unable to longer hold his temper. To-day he so far lost his self-control that he fired a shot gun at the boys, the charge taking effect in the legs of little Thomas Taylor, a boy about ten or twelve years of age, four shots entered the left leg, and one shot at the knee joint of the right leg. The little fellow was taken to Dr. Q. O. Sutherland's office, where the Dr. took the shot out of his leg, and fixed him up all right. This will undoubtedly be a lesson to the boys that they should not persist in this kind of amusement, and if the case is followed up, it may prove another legal reason why a man should not so far lose control of himself, as to take the law into his own hands, by the use of a shot gun.
